

HEAD COACH BRIAN JONES

CAMP COUNSELORS

The 2006-07 season marked Brian Jones' first year as head coach of the Fighting Sioux men's basketball team. Jones, who most recently served as Director of Basketball Operations at the University of Iowa, is the 18th head coach in the history of the program and just the third in the last 36 years.

Jones, a Rock Island, Ill., spent the past five seasons as an assistant coach after serving as administrative assistant coach in his first two years with the Hawkeyes.

"I invite you to attend the University of North Dakota Men's Basketball Camps. We are confident our camps are the best opportunity in the Upper Midwest for players of all ages to learn the game and improve their skills in an exciting and fun atmosphere. Our camps will offer instruction from the University of North Dakota Men's Basketball staff and players and the finest area college and high school coaches. Our camps are designed to help each individual camper become the best player possible. Hope to see you this summer!"

Facilities

The UND Basketball Camps will use a number of facilities across the beautiful University of North Dakota campus. Campers receive full use of the Betty Engelstad Sioux Center, the home to the UND basketball programs, and the former home of Fighting Sioux sports, the Hyslop Sports Center, which has eight courts in its main arena and the multipurpose gymnasium. In total, campers have access to 11 full courts.

Housing

Basketball resident campers will be housed in campus residence halls. Dormitory space may be limited. Please apply early to ensure housing availability.

Supervision

Check-point program, offers daily check-in times. (Grades 9-12):

All campers entering grades 9-12 beginning Fall 2007, and who will be staying on campus will be housed in the university's daily check-in program. This program has four daily camper check-in times throughout the scheduled camp itinerary. The check-in is the responsibility of the camper and takes place after breakfast, lunch, and either before or after dinner, or at bed check. Campers will be restricted to campus property; however, they will be able to visit all campus facilities (except the university's summer school hall and adult conference center) without being accompanied by a university employee.

Supervised Program (Grades 3-8):

All campers entering grades 3-8 beginning Fall 2007, and who will be staying on campus will be housed in the university's supervision program. This program offers controlled boundaries and no flexibility for on- or off-campus private time for the camper. Campers are escorted to and from all scheduled activities throughout camp. In addition, campers have limited time in their residence hall room during scheduled nightly programs. For answers to frequently asked questions and other housing supervision information, please see the UND Housing Department website at: www.housing.und.edu/conference

Meals

Nutritious all-you-can-eat meals are planned by the UND Dining Services and served in our air-conditioned dining centers.

Camp Gear

All campers should wear or bring appropriate training gear. Overnight campers are expected to bring their own towels, linens, pillows, blankets or sleeping bag as well as bathroom articles and other articles of clothing, as desired. Extra spending money for snacks, etc. may be helpful.

Camp Registration Fee

Full payment or a $100 deposit must accompany the enrollment form, with the balance due upon registration. Cancellation of enrollment will result in a $30 administration fee. Please make checks (U.S. funds only) payable to: UND. Camp phone number is (701)-777-3478.

Health Care

Each camper must be covered by their own accident and medical insurance. Medical attention is available 24 hours a day and excellent medical facilities are less than a mile away.

Commuters

Individuals who are commuting to camp must arrive at 8:30 a.m. Campers who do not choose to eat the provided lunch and dinner must be back to the facility at specified times designated by the coaching staff. Camp is dismissed at 8:30 p.m.

Camp Awards

Individual and team awards are presented at the end of each camp.

Authentic UND gear is available at camp store and at check-in and check-out!
